COLONIAL CHARLESTOWN

Heritage - Education - Historic Preservation

Firing the town cannon, Colonel Ramsey started the 4th of July celebration on Charlestown's Long Point with a big bang. Historic notes of the revolution and patriotic songs gave voice to the times. There's more excitement coming . . . .
Read on!

COLONIAL GAMES and CRAFTS for Children

Sunday, October 14 from 1 to 3, at the Tory House Museum in Charlestown.

For children ages 12 years and under, find great crafts to make and games to re-discover for some old fashioned good times for today's families.

RSVP to Town Hall so that enough supplies are on hand!

TWO BIG DATES TO SAVE!

Sat. April 6, 2019 - Taste of the Times Colonial Dinner

Combine: a menu with recipes from Mt. Vernon and Monticello kitchens. A convivial setting with reenacted moments from Charlestown's Colonial life and times. Mix with colonial games of sport, skill and luck. Shake out a unique and wonderful night out for the gentlemen and ladies.

Sat. September 21, 2019 - Charlestown Colonial Fair

Good family fun all day with colonial crafts and games. Come see demonstrations of colonial crafts, work and daily life.
